The Council for the Built Environment (CBE) is a statutory body established under the Council for the Built Environment Act no. 43 of 2000. It is an overarching body that coordinates the six Councils for the Built Environment Professions (architecture, engineering, landscape architecture, project and construction management, property valuation and quantity surveying - all operating within the built environment) for the purpose of promoting good conduct within the professions, transforming the professions and advising South African government on built environment related issues.

APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FROM SUITABLY QUALIFIED AND EXPERIENCED CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENT AS A CHAIRPERSON OF THE STATUTORY APPEAL COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT (CBE)

Closing Date: 14 February 2018

CBE has the statutory mandate to decide appeals lodged by any person aggrieved by a decision of any of the Councils for the Built Environment Professions. The CBE is obligated by its enabling legislation to appoint an Appeal Committee to conduct appeals in terms of section 33 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (Act No. 208 of 1996). It is required of the Appeal Committee to decide appeals within 60 days of lodgement.

The Appeal Committee consists of three members. Legislation has further prescribed that one of the members of the Appeal Committee must be a person qualified in law, and who has appropriate experience. This member further acts as the Chairperson of the Appeal Committee.

The duties and the scope of work of a Chairperson of the Appeal Committee include, but are not limited to:

- i. Ensure that all appeals are conducted in accordance with section of 33 of the Constitution of South Africa,
- ii. Ensure that all appeals are decided with fully motivated reasons within 60 days of lodgement and furnished to the CBE, and
- iii. Direct the activities of the Appeal Committee to achieve items 1 and 2.

Due to the nature of the appointment, the applicant should demonstrate leadership qualities, integrity, independence, dedication and should possess good communication skills, analytical ability and independent judgement. The applicant should demonstrate the following academic qualifications, experience and competence requirements:

- i. Bachelor of Law Degree,
- ii. Seven (7) years post admission experience as an Attorney or Advocate,
- iii. Knowledge of Constitutional and Administrative Law, and
- iv. Understanding of the CBE Act and professions Acts that govern the professional councils.

The successful applicant will be remunerated for a rate of R 1800 per hour. Travel expenses will also be reimbursed. Appointments will be for a period of twelve (12) months.

Applications must be accompanied by an updated curriculum vitae, as well as certified copies of ID document, qualifications, and two copies of judgements handed down in appeal matters.

Suitably qualified candidates are required to forward their applications to:
