The Council for the Built Environment (CBE) is a statutory body established under the Council for the Built Environment Act no. 43 of 2000. It is an overarching body that coordinates the six Councils for the Built Environment Professions (architecture, engineering, landscape architecture, project and construction management, property valuation and quantity surveying - all operating within the built environment) for the purpose of promoting good conduct within the professions, transforming the professions and advising South African government on built environment related issues.

APPLICATIONS ARE INVITED FROM SUITABLY QUALIFIED AND EXPERIENCED CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENT AS A MEMBER OF THE STATUTORY APPEAL COMMITTEE OF THE COUNCIL FOR THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT (CBE)

Closing Date: 14 February 2018

CBE has the statutory mandate to decide appeals lodged by any person aggrieved by a decision of any of the Councils for the Built Environment Professions (CBEP). The CBE is obligated by its enabling legislation to appoint an Appeal Committee to conduct appeals in terms of section 33 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (Act No. 208 of 1996). It is required of the Appeal Committee to decide appeals within 60 days of lodgement.

The Appeal Committee consists of three members. Legislation has further prescribed that one of the members of the Appeal Committee must be a person registered as a professional with a CBEP.

The duties and the scope of work for a member of the Appeal Committee includes, but are not limited to:

- a) Reviewing documents submitted in support of an appeal,
- b) Attending appeals hearings and committee meetings,
- c) Providing expert opinion to the Appeal Committee, in writing if required by the Chairperson of the Appeal Committee, and

d) Performing any other duties as directed by the Chairperson of the Appeal Committee.

Due to the nature of the appointment, the applicant should demonstrate leadership qualities, integrity, independence, dedication and should possess good communication skills, analytical ability and independent judgement. The applicant should possess the following academic qualifications, experience and competence:

- a) Registered as a professional with the CBEP,
- b) Seven (7) years post professional registration experience,
- c) Knowledge of the professions Acts,
- d) Ability to provide expert opinion based on oral and written evidence submitted in support of an appeal, and
- e) Applicants must not be a Council or Committee member of a CBEP.

The successful applicant will be remunerated for a rate of R 1500 per hour. Travel expenses will be reimbursed. The term of appointment is twelve (12) months.

Applications must be accompanied by an updated curriculum vitae, certified copies of ID document and qualifications, as well as two copies of written expert opinions previously delivered.

Suitably qualified candidates are required to forward their applications to:
